

Steven W. Becker is the Founding Member of the Law Office of Steven W. Becker LLC and specializes in criminal defence, appellate practice, and federal civil rights litigation. He graduated cum laude from the DePaul University College of Law in Chicago, Illinois, earning a Certificate in International and Comparative Law, as well as Order of the Coif and Order of the Barrister honours. Mr. Becker is licensed in Illinois and the District of Columbia, multiple federal district courts and courts of appeal, and the United States Supreme Court, and practices in both state and federal court. He is also a member of the Association of Defence Counsel Practising Before the International Courts and Tribunals and represents clients in international criminal matters. Mr. Becker previously worked as an Assistant Appellate Defender at the Office of the State Appellate Defender in Chicago, where he prepared criminal appeals and presented argument in both the Illinois Appellate Court and the Illinois Supreme Court. Mr. Becker currently serves as Deputy Secretary General for the International Association of Penal Law in France and was the former Co-editor in Chief of the Revue Internationale de Droit Penal. He has lectured throughout Europe and the Balkans, as well as in Russia, China, and Brazil, on various topics of domestic and international law. Mr. Becker has authored more than 40 law review articles and book chapters. In addition, Mr. Becker has represented clients who have been exonerated based upon DNA testing, has obtained multiple orders of exhumation, and has been actively engaged in investigating a forty-year-old cold case involving a serial murderer and DNA identification. He has also written academically on the topic of post-conviction DNA testing and has litigated such issues in the trial and appellate courts.